

Notification of NHI and LTCI Contribution Rate in 2024

National Health Insurance Service (NHIS) informs you that the national health insurance (NHI) contribution rate will be frozen in 2024, while that of long-term care insurance (LTCI) will be increased. Please refer to the following for details.

NHI and LTCI Contribution Rate in 2024

- NHI rate for the employee-insured: 7.09%(frozen)
  - Monthly contribution
$$= \text{Monthly average wage} \times \text{Contribution rate}(7.09\%)$$

※ Contribution share rate: employer 50%, employee 50%
  - Additional monthly contribution
$$= \text{Additional monthly income} \times \text{NHI contribution rate}(7.09\%)$$
- Value per score for the self-employed insured: KRW 208.4(frozen)
  - Monthly contribution
$$= \text{Contribution score} \times \text{Value per score}(\text{KRW } 208.4)$$
- LTCI contribution rate: 0.9082%(2023)  $\Rightarrow$  0.9182%(2024, increased by 1.09%)
  - Monthly contribution
$$= \text{NHI contribution} \times \frac{\text{LTCI contribution rate}(0.9182\%)}{\text{NHI contribution rate}(7.09\%)}$$

※ Other Guidance Notes: Pension income for 2023 applies from January to December 2024

Best Wishes for a Healthy and Happy New Year 2024!
